How to get involved?

To be in with a chance of being one of the 500 charities to be awarded £1000 you need to nominate the charity of your choice. Anyone can nominate a charity, but you can only nominate a charity once. This is determined by your email address. However a single charity can receive multiple donations from different people. Meaning the more people who nominate your charity, the greater your chances of being one of the 500.
